

WELCOME!

To WSE's Expanding
Livestock Markets
Conference

AGENDA

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

10 am Ranch Tour

Tour a regenerative ranch in Big Timber area & see firsthand the benefits & results. Sack lunch will be provided

4:30 pm Processing - Critical Link to Marketing

Participate in the processing bottleneck discussion with industry experts

6 pm Social Hour

Network with peers and company representatives at the Pine Meadows Golf Course in Lewistown

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

8:30 am Welcome

8:45 am Why Brands Value Regen Practices

Keynote speaker

9:30 am Aggregation Supply Chain Panel

Thousand Hills & Country Natural Beef, along with participating ranchers will explain their programs and experiences. (Awaiting BlueNest confirmation)

:15 Break

11:00 am Verifying Sustainable Methods

Western Sustainability Exchange, Audubon, EarthClaims, & American Grassfed Association explain methods to measure and monitor

12:30 pm Extended Lunch

Extra time to visit with guest speakers & exhibitors. USDA Soil Simulator demonstration

2 pm Value-Added Opportunities Panel

The Other Half Processing will explain their programs. (Awaiting WestPaw, Xanterra & Timberland confirmations)

:15 Break

3:30 pm Carbon Market Opportunities

Discussion pertaining to opportunities in the carbon market and funding for ecosystem improvements

4:45 pm Profitability Index

5:30 pm Closing Remarks

<https://westernsustainabilityexchange.org/event/livestock-markets-conference>

PINE MEADOWS GOLF COURSE

LEWISTOWN, MT

Accommodations - Rooms are available at the Super 8 at a reduced rate for attendees - Please let them know you are with WSE's Markets Conference

ABOUT WSE

Preserving the best of the West—wide open spaces, fish and wildlife habitat, and farming and ranching heritage. We accomplish this by advocating, teaching, and incentivizing regenerative practices to ranchers and connecting markets to the products raised on these operations.